

6516206739.txt

The FCC has allowed commercial terrestrial radio to degenerate into a mess that serves only the owners and advertisers of local broadcasters. Satellite radio serves the interests of the listeners like myself. If local traffic information is demanded by the listeners, satellite radio should be free to provide it. Do not allow special interest groups (owners of local terrestrial frequencies) to obtain protection from subscription satellite radio at the expense of the listeners who choose to be free from incessant advertising.